The poster is a solid blue rectangle with white text. At the top center is the logo for the British School at Rome, consisting of the letters 'B', 'S', and 'R' in a large, bold, sans-serif font, with horizontal lines connecting them. Below this, in a smaller font, are the words 'BRITISH SCHOOL AT ROME'. The main title, 'The social value of beauty', is written in a very large, bold, white sans-serif font. Below the title, the text reads: 'A discussion with UK and Italian think tanks ResPublica and Trinità dei Monti, Philip Long (Director, V&A Museum of Design, Dundee) and Giuseppe Minoia (President, GfK Eurisko)'. At the bottom left, the date and time are listed: '19.10.2016' and '9.00-13.30', followed by the venue 'Sainsbury Lecture Theatre'. At the bottom right, the location and website are listed: 'Via Gramsci 61', '00197 Roma', and 'www.bsr.ac.uk'.
